

Chester Luton Keck

February 11, 1931 - July 19, 2007

Judsonia:

Rev. Chester Luton Keck, 76, of Judsonia, died at his home Thursday. Born February 11, 1931 in Gould a son of the late Charles Andrew and Fay B. Cole Keck. Rev. Keck was ordained as an Assembly of God minister in the spring of 1974. After pastoring churches in Arkansas, Tennessee and Mississippi, he retired in September of 2003.

Survived by his wife of nearly 58 years, Girtha Lillian Keck; daughter, Lillian Jane Spencer, Judsonia; son, Larry Luton Keck, Denton, Texas; sisters, Juanita Hall and Veona Counce both of Wynne; brother, Jobie Keck, West Memphis; grandchildren, Lutonia Hester, Virginia Money, Lesli Chestnut, Johnne Gregory, Lena Spencer, Jackawin Luther, David Keck, Girtha Keck, Karl Keck, Larry Keck and Jacob Keck; 25 great-grandchildren and 1 great-great-grandson.

Preceded in death by a son, Jonathan David Keck; brothers, Charles, Ray, Troy and Samuel Keck and a grandson, Samuel William Spencer.

Visitation: Sunday, 3-6 p.m. Services: Monday, July 23, 2007 at 2:00 p.m. at the Pleasant Plains First Assembly of God. Burial will follow at Roosevelt Cemetery by Powell Funeral Home, Bald Knob-Judsonia. www.powellfuneralhome.net.