“ I remember meeting you for the first time at the apartments in Carlisle. You walked right through Melinda's door and started talking to me right then and there. You always called me either Bri Bri or short stop because I was so short. I remember once I got to know you I stayed a lot of nights with you and your mom. We would sit up at night watching scary movies, eating junk food, and making each other laugh... Even though we have hadn't done that in years, at least you texted me on Facebook everyday.. It just doesn't seem right with you gone but I guess God wanted you to come on home so you could be reunited with your precious Anna. We never do know the reasons but we have to try and stay strong, because we know you wouldn't want us to cry or to grieve.. I love you Christey Hobbs and one day we'll meet again. May God bless the family and the souls that Christey touched while she was here on earth. Rest in peace.

“ I can't believe I'm actually having to do this now.. I never thought I would have to tell you goodbye so very soon. It isn't fair at all. I'm broken in so many ways. We may not have seen each other very much, but we spoke every single day! You were and still are my bestfriend! I needed you, still! Cody, Nanny, we all did! Picking myself up and coping hasn't been very easy. These last two days have felt like a year! I'm waiting to wake up hoping its a horrible nightmare!!! I love you so very much christey diane!!! When you left you took a piece of my heart with you!!!.. You will forever be with me!! I will never forget you or our memories!! Thank you so much for making my life the best! And I'm glad I could do the same for you! This all just seems so unreal!! Just make sure you watch over us! Tell every one there I said hello! And I'll make sure Cody and nanny are safe!! I love you baby, fly high! Until I see you again!!
Love always,
Kacey

times to look back on. Cre you maybe gone but you certainly will not
