

Christopher Harold "Chris" Street

June 25, 1977 - June 26, 2025

Christopher Harold "Chris" Street, 48, of Judsonia, passed from this life on Thursday, June 26, 2025. He was born June 25, 1977 in Searcy to Lloyd Ruffis and Wanda (Smith) Street. Chris worked as a cattle hand on the Ricky Hays farm for 18 years and thoroughly enjoyed being a cowboy. An avid outdoorsman, he loved fishing, hunting and spending time in nature. Chris read his Bible regularly and had a deep love for the Lord. He always enjoyed watching his daughter play basketball and watching WWE with his son. One of Chris' favorite places to visit and spend time with his family was in Timbo, Arkansas. Though he is gone from our presence here on earth, we are comforted knowing he is in the presence of our Lord.

He is survived by his wife, Nicole Street; daughter, Mystery Street; son, Austin Fulbright; mother, Wanda Street-Mason; brother, Lloyd Street, nephew and great-nephew, Barrett and Chase Street; his best friend, George Passmore as well as numerous cousins and other extended family.

In addition to his father, he was preceded in death by his step-father, Ronald Mason; grandparents, Harlan and Sara Smith and his sister-in-law, Marsha Ann Moser.

Funeral services will be conducted on Saturday, July 5, 2025 at 10:30 a.m. at the Dripping Springs Assembly of God with Bro. Daren Phillips officiating and his uncle, Howard Smith offering personal remarks. Visitation at the church will begin at 9:30 a.m. Interment will follow in the Providence Cemetery.

Arrangements are entrusted to Powell Funeral Home, Bald Knob – Judsonia.

“ He was my first husband and the man that made me a mama and till this day I still loved him cause not only was he a dad to our daughter but he took my youngest child as his own and he was the best coparent and friend someone could have.
