“ C J was like a lil brother tome. The last day I dot to spend with him was few days after he went fishing with his dad. He was Happy and in Good Spirits. We hung out for bout 3 hrs talking bout the time he had spent fishing and hanging with his dad and mom. We grilled some burgers and hit some softballs in the back yard. We talked about how things was starting to turn around in his life and how much he enjoyed Being with his Babygirl everyday! It was a great afternoon one I will never forget!! I Love and Miss you C.J!!!!

“ C J was my only nephew He like all of us has his share of ups and downs but what I can take comfort in is knowing he was working on bettering himself not just for him but his fiance Leigh and baby girl. He was the one you could count on showing up no matter the family event and ALWAYS had that smile on his face. Thank you C J for being apart of my life and memories and thank you for closing the gap between God and I

“ I loved my boy endlessly. I believe our last day together could possibly be our best. I took him fishing... we sat there for a few hours catching fish, and I asked if he was ready to go home. He said, "nope. I'm catching fish and having a great time with my dad." I guess we stayed out there most of the day, was bad sunburnt. But I loved every minute of it. Man... I miss him so much.

Love you son

“ I can remember it like it was yesterday.. Watching him and my brother mess around, laugh too loud at the silliest things. He was such a great person. And I'll never forget the memories we have together. I think my all time favorite memory with him was homecoming night... It meant a lot to me, and he was right there beside me. It breaks my heart to see him go so fast and so young. He will be missed so much. I love you CJ, fly high brother. Fly high.

“ I remember when me and Chris were in high school together. We didn't really talk alot. But we soon became friends. He was like a brother to me. It hurts so bad to hear that he is gone. It still hasnt even sunk in fully yet, because I want to believe that my best friend is still here. I miss you so much chris. Words can't describe the pain everyone is going through at the loss of such a beautiful soul as yourself. You were such a great friend to me. I send my condolences and my prayers to his family and to leigha and their beautiful baby girl. I'm so sorry that I didn't get to see you or talk to you one last time my friend. Till I see you again.
