

Cleveland Bee Noble

February 15, 1950 - July 4, 2020

Cleveland Bee Noble passed through the heavenly gates at the age of 70, July 4, 2020. He was born in Senath, Mo. to Clarence & Ople Noble. Cleveland touched many lives through his kindness, he was a good, honest, hard working man always one of the first to say, "if you need help, let me know, together we'll figure it out." He was a proud Army veteran, serving in South Korea. During his service time his accomplishments were a Good Conduct Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, and Expert Badge M-14. He was also a proud and loving husband, daddy, Papa and Paw Paw Cabot. He was retired from Dassault Falcon Jet. Cleveland showed his love for you in the big and little things he did. He or his siblings would tell stories of their childhood of the mischief they got into or working in the cotton fields saying "momma says whomever makes the most money can get a new pair of shoes". Cleveland loved to hunt and fish, loved to sit on the porch and watch and count the deer that came into his yard or pasture. His passion throughout his life has been his family, farm and farm animals. He loved talking about the "girls" which would be Sassy and Patches, the horses and Jenny the donkey. They loved him for the watermelon he would give them. He met his loving wife Judy, of 26 years at a 50's party, as she was leaving he grabbed her hand, walking her to the car, asking for her phone number. Two days later he called asking for a date, they have been inseparable since. Cleveland leaves behind to cherish his memory is his loving wife Judy Noble, daughters Kelly (Wesley) Fulks,

Tina (Steve) Harris and Sherry Williams. He had two Grandsons Kyler (Ashley) Fulks, Matthew (Sarah) Harris, one Great Grandson Levi Harris. He also leaves his sisters and brothers to cherish his memory: Doris (Jay) Swan, Delois (Bill) Sledge, Phyllis Rowe, Marlene (Rodger) Carson, Wilma Stevens, Melba Schmidt, Evelyn (David) Smith, Jackie (Norma) Noble and James Harold Noble. Preceded by parents Clarence & Ople Noble, Brother Billy Wayne Noble and sister Bobbie Louise (Noble) Swan.

Today as I traveled up Beebe Capps Blvd I was beside a Hearst carrying a flag draped coffin! I felt guilty not pulling over and letting them pass. My heart was crushed that this veteran did not have an escort to his final resting place. I prayed for this family as I continued to drive. I got home to look up the obituary. Even though I never knew this remarkable man or his family, I prayed for peace and comfort! So sorry for your loss.
