

Clifford Cheatham

December 3, 1920 - January 24, 2010

Clifford Horace Cheatham, age 89, went to be with the Lord on January 24, 2010. He was born in Bauxite, Arkansas to Lee Samuel Cheatham and Nora Scoggins Cheatham on December 3, 1920. He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife of 67 years, Anna J. Williams Cheatham, and 2 sisters, Beulah Cheatham Reid, and Hazel Cheatham McFatridge.

He is survived by 3 children: Rebecca Joann Cheatham Gray (Merle) of Pryor, Oklahoma; Clifford Lee Cheatham (Marilyn) of Hensley, Arkansas; and Paul Cheatham (Marsha) of Searcy, Arkansas; 4 grandchildren: Alana Carol Gray Newton, Craig Eugene Cheatham, Kevin Lee Cheatham, and Brian Thomas Cheatham; and 4 great-grandchildren. He is survived by one brother, Sammy Cheatham of Cabot, Arkansas; and many nieces and nephews.

He lived most of his life in the Little Rock, Arkansas, but has lived in Searcy, Arkansas since 1993.

He was a member of Westview Missionary Baptist Church in Searcy and served as a Deacon in previous churches. He was a veteran of WWII and was a past master of the Iron Springs Masonic Lodge #342. He was employed by Central Arkansas Water for 36 years.

He was loved by his family and will be missed.

Memorials may be made to Westview Missionary Baptist Church, Searcy, Arkansas or to the Antioch Missionary Baptist Seminary, Little Rock, Arkansas.

Tribute Wall

“ God bless your family for all of the work you have done form him and his churches over the years.

January 26, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Mr. Cheatam's passing. He was a fine man & all were blessed who knew him. My thoughts & prayers are with you all at this time.

January 25, 2010 at 12:00 AM