

Clyde Stewart

October 7, 1923 - October 3, 2010

Clyde Paul Stewart, 86, of Searcy, died Sunday, October 3, 2010. He was born October 7, 1923 in Higginson, Arkansas, the son of William and Myrtle Stewart.

Clyde is survived by his wife of 64 years, Lena Stewart; a daughter, Debbie Wood and her husband Michael; two grandchildren, David Wood and his wife Debra and Lori Ray and her husband Doyle; three great-grandchildren, Taylor Page, Trace Wood and Garrett Wood; a brother, Milfred Stewart; and a cousin, Dorothy Newton Temple. He is preceded in death by his parents and a sister, Mary Hogan.

Clyde and Lena were a long-time members of the First United Methodist Church of Searcy. He graduated from Searcy High School, served in the United States Army during WWII, worked for many years with the United States Post Office, having served as Post Master of both Bradford and Bald Knob Post Offices.

Funeral services were 10 a.m. Wednesday, October 6, at Powell Funeral Home Chapel of Searcy.

Tribute Wall

“ Aunt Lena...

It saddens me so much that Uncle CP has passed. I remember him being so fun and humorous when I was younger. I can almost hear his laughter. We had so much fun together..seems like 40 years ago... oh, It WAS 40 years ago.

Love you guys SO much. Many thoughts and prayer are being lifted for you and your family

October 07, 2010 at 12:00 AM