“ Rest In Peace dear cousin Tiny. Sincere condolences to all your family. I know Uncle Tot and Aunt Vee have welcomed you into heaven. Aunt Vee and my mom, her first cousin, used to look forward to our families getting together on Sundays. I'll always fondly remember our drives from Ponchatoula to Denham Springs to how funny you and David were

“ Jessica, lifting your sweet family up to Our Heavenly Father as you lay your precious earthly one to rest today. You are so dearly loved and prayed over. May this difficult day be sprinkled with moments of fond remembrances that bring a smile rather than all tears, and hope for an eternity beyond our wildest imaginings. Bless you all. ((BIG hugs))

“ Mrs. Phyllis, Jessica & Yvonne, I'm so very sorry for your family's loss. I'll keep your entire family in my prayers in the days, weeks & months to come.

My fondest memory of Mr. Conrad is the 1st time I stayed the night with Jessica. We were teenagers & had gotten up Saturday morning fairly late. We were eating some breakfast at the dining room table. He looked in my bowl. I was eating rice with butter & sugar. He said, "That's not the way to eat rice. We don't eat it like that in this house. You can't come back unless you promise not to do that again." I said "Yes sir" & we laughed. I'm not sure if he was truly kidding, but I never ate sugar on my rice at their house again. Lol
