“ To: Anita Corinne (Hart)Fuller-Scott, from Les Parmenter, Class of 1958. I rejoiced with the news that your mother achieved 100, as Mrs. Summitt did. In addition, your mother was an important person in Harding's history. She was my employer for one day in the cafeteria, when Joe Darrah tried to teach me how to make scrambled eggs. But I quickly realized I could not start every day at 5 a.m., and survive Harding. She was strict, but fair, and exhibited a wonderful sense of humor, when she could afford to relax and reveal her real personality.
But I also remember the trek to the FUMC one Sunday night to hear your violin solo; it was worth every step, each way. Thank you for sharing her with us, and the resultant enrichment of our otherwise restricted lives. Les

“ We send our condolences to the family. Mother and I have such fond memories of "Miss Corrine." Mother is 96 and still remembers how "Miss Corrine" and Fancis Patton would stay up all night reading Good Housekeeping Magazine.I was on a "Pilgrimage Club Trip " that Mrs.Morgan sponsored . "Miss Corrine " was such fun to be with on that trip. We had a short visit with her about two years ago in Searcy. Florrie Wakenight Lyle and Linnie Lyle
