

Daisy Dean Weinkein

May 29, 1932 - June 21, 2025

Daisy Dean Weinkein, 93, of Bald Knob, passed away on Saturday, June 21, 2025 in Searcy, Arkansas. She was born in Whitewater, Missouri on May 29, 1932 to John and Eula (Proffer) Davenport.

She worked at Coffey County Hospital in Burlington, Kansas as a housekeeper and later worked in the kitchen until she retired. She enjoyed quilting, gardening, canning and sewing. Her garden was big enough to feed half the town; her family was not rich but always had 3 meals a day and plenty to eat. Daisy was an excellent cook and made sure her family had everything they needed. Her family says she went out with a bang; her goal was to live to see Donald Trump as president again, well she did and left this world the same day he made history.

Daisy is survived by her two daughters, Kay Weinkein and Kerry Little; her grandsons, Levi Little and Bret Little (Brandy); she had seven great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by parents; four brothers and one sister.

Arrangements are entrusted to Powell Funeral Home Bald Knob-Judsonia.
