

David Michael Evans

April 5, 1946 - December 16, 2025

David Michael Evans

Hillsboro, Ohio — 1946 to 2025

David Michael Evans passed peacefully into the presence of his Lord and Savior, doing what he loved and surrounded by the comfort of home, music, and faith.

A gifted musician, he played guitar with the Texas Troubadours and later collaborated with his dear friend Mike Reid on the album that featured his song “Foxy Lady.” After music, David became a devoted engineer, admired for his skill, patience, and mentorship of others.

He cherished his wife, Nancy Hernández Evans (“mi vida”), and was deeply proud of his children — Tim, Terry, Cheryl Lynn, and David Paul Evans. His life was filled with music, craftsmanship, faith, and family.

He found joy in nature, carpentry, and gardening, and loved his pets Spotty, Jake, Domino, and Lou. In quiet evenings he could be found watching Waterworld, Braveheart, Gladiator, Avatar, or WALL-E with his family close by.

His favorite Scripture, John 10:10, guided his path:

“I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.”

He lived fully in that promise, and his faith and kindness continue to bless all who knew him.

“ My favorite memory of David is when he (David) and wife Nancy, took my late husband Carl Evans and myself to Monterey Mexico. We went to restaurants and shops, even a grocery store. The local people were very nice . But the best of all they took us up a very tall steep mountain, I asked Nancy if we are going to meet God. The most beautiful place. David will be missed by Liberty and I. He was a good man.

My condolences to the family. Nancy, David & David Paul came to be my friends when they came to a school I was Director at. When they moved to Arkansas, I spoke to them regularly. What a great family. I will miss our conversations & offer prayers for all. He is free again!
