“ Melba, Patricia and I both want to express our heartfelt condolences in the passing of Dave. My respect for Dave exceeded the bounds of a work place relationship in that he was a truly good person to those who earned his respect. My years of working for Dave taught me many lessons in how to deal with employees and the expectations you should have from them.

Again I say those inadequate words "I am truly sorry to hear of Dave's passing" and we will have you in our prayers.
