“ Sandy and family, Doug and I are so sorry to hear of David's death. He was a great guy and left this world much too soon. Know that we loved you both and admired the love that you had for each other. You were great teachers and were respected by students and teachers alike. Our prayers are with you and your family. “ We have many fond memories of David from his days of growing up in Cave City. There were many good times during that time as well as later when we got to know Sandy and the boys. Our thoughts and prayers are with the entire Green family during this time.
