“ What I remember most about my cousin David is when he came to visit us in Ferndale at my grandfathers place and he drove us down to little rock over some mighty good little hills, giving his girls cousins a thrill. Another time was when I stood on his feet and he walked me around the house I was very little then. Then at the family reunion June 9,2007 at Hot Springs when he ruffled my red hair. I called him not too long ago and we had a nice talk and he invited me to come visit him. I will truly miss our Christmas Card exchange he & I did every year.

“ I did not know David very well. He was much older. I've heard that he became a fine christian man. He was my mother's step brother (Syble Mason Fritts)
