“ Dear Siler Family, I cannot tell you how many nights David sat up and rubbed my foot and laid awake as I whimpered in the night, how I'll find it difficult to go to a doctors appointment without him driving me. We fought at times like Bulldogs and Yorkies, but in the end a few days all would be forgotten. I wish that I knew why you left us as I know that you felt so responsible for your mothers care, my mother as well as me. You were a giver in terms of giving your time to do things for the 3 of us that no one else could do or we would allow to do. You shopped for us, cleaned up for us and never ask for anything in return, except that we call on you when we needed you. I so often wanted to understand why you didn't seem to want to find a job to help out around here, and you never told me that your true obligation to the 3 of us wouldn't really allow you to find a 9-5 job. Besides money couldn't buy care nor love. In that way or my way, I constantly denied your feelings for me and only now know that you gave me so much more than any job or money could provide. I find myself calling your number often and probably always will. I miss you so very much. They'll never be another DAVID in my life or our Mother's Life. - Brenda K. Osborn

“ Rick and Family,

I am so sorry for your loss. These are some of the toughest things we go through and it is never easy. But you can take comfort in the fact that you are in my thoughts and prayers, as well as many others. My condolences

“ I wish to tell you some of the details of David’s life during the past few years that I personally know because David spoke with me and I observed some of the happenings in his life. He was my friend as well as a friend to my entire family especially to my mother and sister Brenda Osborn. I could always count on him to give my mother her medication and meals when I was unable to be there. He would come early in the morning before he went to work and bring her breakfast. She always looked forward to seeing him.

I talked with David many times and we shared prayers and concerns for our family and friends.

It was about 6 weeks ago when David especially shared with me that he prayed each night and morning for his own forgiveness and also for the various needs of his family, friends and community. It was one of those special times when someone willingly shares their heart with you (we all need to share and rejoice with others often-for our good and for theirs also). It was then that he told me that if he died at that very moment, he knew he would go to Heaven.

David was a kind and loving man who enjoyed helping others. The Bible training he received when he was young was beginning to blossom during the last 4 or 5 years and he enjoyed doing what God laid upon his heart to do (thank God for those who taught and mentored him). Many of us know the things that he has done to help others. David believed this was his calling from God and he received great personal satisfaction from helping others (a great lesson for all of us).

Below are some of David’s favorite scriptures.

Psalms 119:105-Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path

John 3:16-For God so loved the world that He gave his one and only one Son that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.

Romans 3:23-We have all sinned and come short of the glory that God had planned for us.

Romans 10:9-If you will confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus Christ as your Savior and Lord and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.

John 10:10-I have come that they might have life and that they may have it more abundantly

John 14:3-And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to myself; that where I am, you may be there also.

*If I cry, it is not for David, but for us that remain here. David has received his transfer to Heaven. I plan to be in Heaven and see my Lord Jesus Christ and my friend David Wayne Siler there. I pray that all of you will prepare and join David there to celebrate and praise our gracious and merciful God forever and ever. David?s friend, “ Rick, I was sorry to hear of your Brothers passing. I meet your Brother one time years ago. I have read what he meant to you and your family and remember God has a purpose for every event. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Billy R and Pat

We are thinking of and praying for you and the family. I can only imagine the void you must feel now as parents. After reading some of the comments made by people who have been a part of David's life in recent times, I realize what a caring and sensitive man David had become. As teachers, we think that our students should be around to mourn our passing.

“ I know the family already knows what a good and wonderful guy he was. He use to pet sit for us and really got attached to our poodle and loved her like his own. David was just a good guy, he cared for everyone he came in contact with. I remember on one occasion that when my mother died, he came and picked up our dog because we were having people stay at our house. He was a caring person. We loved him so much and will always miss his smiling face. We will never forget him and our hearts and our prayers go out to his family. The world will miss a wonderful guy

“ When one of God’s children hurts, we all hurt and when one mourns we all mourn. I didn’t know David, but from the words of those who knew him, I see he was a loving and caring person to those in his life; the Lord instructed us to that very thing. Cherish your good memories with David and draw comfort from the Lord, He is the Great Comforter. And carry on the legacy of compassion to others as David did with those who crossed his path.
