I met the Starkey brothers years ago when my husband played music with them one new years at I think it was a skating rink originally in McCrory. The things you remember about people, their smile, their amazing talent, their genuine friendliness, that's how I would describe a starkey brother, just good people

David and his family were a special part of our younger lives. We played and sang and worshipped the Lord together with them many times and many places. They were good to us and we have fond memories of our times together. David was a talented musician and I know will be missed by his family. Our prayers are for God to comfort all those who loved him. Elaine (Stokes) Griggs

I graduated in 1990. Coach Starkey as we called him (though I never saw him coach anything) was one of my teachers from 7th grade to graduation. I played the piano with him and his brothers a couple of times. He was always a nice guy. When I decided to drop out of college and join the Marine Corps, everybody thought it was a terrible idea. My parents, friends. I was kind of a smart Alec and people thought I would not survive. Coach Starkey told me "Brian, I think you'll do fine in the Marines. Don't listen to them." So I went in a private, and 25 years later I retired a Lieutenant Colonel. Thanks coach.
