I miss you so very much Dave it is sometimes very hard for me to play my music because your not around and I start thinking about you and then I just start talking instead of playing the guitar. I know your probably able to play many of the instruments where ever you are and I bet you that Blake is learning about the Taylor... He I hope and pray is able to play it for your grandfather . Who I also pray is doing good and has made it where he wants to be .. I miss you and love you very much. Your vowed to be your step daughter Tiffany Bramlett.
