

Deborah Jean Humes

May 28, 1965 - January 31, 2024

Deborah Jean Humes, 58 of Bradford, Arkansas passed from this life on January 31, 2024, at her home surrounded by her loving daughters. She was born in Marvell, Arkansas on May 28, 1965, to Leon Merrell and Alice Crawford.

Throughout the years of her life, she worked in home health and was a caregiver to many. She enjoyed traveling, music of all kinds and spending Summers with her feet in the water. Deborah was a true pioneer woman at heart, she believed you should always have shelf stable foods, she canned everything possible. She and the girls were always out picking Polk salad, dewberries, and anything edible that could be canned. Crocheting, embroidering, and sewing were some of her talents, she was an excellent seamstress. Norse mythology, the Viking era, was something she enjoyed reading and watching.

Those who preceded her in death were her husband, George Dallas Humes, Jr.; father, Leon Merrell; sister, Clara Massey.

Deborah left behind her parents, Robert and Alice Smith; daughters, GeorGINNA Bethel and Sarah Cherry; grandchildren, Grayce Humes, Madison White, Bailey White, Viktor Cherry; brothers, Jeremy Merrell and Billy Harrison; special loved ones that were always there for her, Vickie Caldwell, Holly Beggs, Tonya Dupuy, Sara Kay King and Tara Massey; several nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

A Celebration of Deborah's life will be held on Saturday, February 24, 2pm-

4pm at Oakland Hill Baptist Church.

Arrangements entrusted to Powell Funeral Home of Bradford, Arkansas.
