“ I remember Debra as a caring person. She had a special message and shared it daily.

We will miss her and her quick smile's, but thru those that took heed to her message, her memory will live on.

My prayer's go out to her family.

“ Debra I miss you so much. My heart cries for you daily. I know you are happy now that you are at peace and rest with your Jesus. You talked about him so much and always said you looked forward to being with him. We will join you one day and then we will all rejoice together. Mom
