“ We are very sad at this time with the passing of our sister In Law of 47 years. After so many years it’s more like sisters, even though we haven’t spent time with each other for a few years. We love and miss her. We used to have all the family get together’s and all the holidays together. We will always have the memories of all the, good & bad times we’ve spent together. I miss you. I love you. your sister, Dene
