“ GRANDMA PEACHES, Hey Grandma! I'm so sorry for everything i've done to hurt you. I know it's too late but it's hurting me so bad. I know you're in a better place and not hurting anymore. I know you already forgave me, but now it hurts and it's been hurting. This teaches me to be respectful to the rest of my family, and to get out sooner before anything else happens. I know you can't read this but you're watching over me; so you see me writting this. Hopefully i can see you again one day. Grandma I love you and miss you. So from here on out i promise to be good so I can get out! You didn't deserve to be hurt.
