Dolores Irene Stengl Leonard, former resident of Greybull, passed away at her home in Searcy AR on February 21, 2015. A family graveside service is planned for a later date.

Mrs. Leonard was born in Worland, WY on February 11, 1931. Dolores was the daughter of Harold and Leona Stengl of Greybull, WY. She graduated from Greybull High School in 1949. In 1950, she married Bert Leonard who she had met at school in Greybull. When Bert was in the Air Force, they lived for a period of time in Rome, Italy. She was an active member of the Church of Christ wherever she and Bert were living. An avid reader, Mrs. Leonard became a well know individual at any library close to her home. For many years, she was an excellent seamstress and her family regularly wore the garments she had made.

“ *Robin and Donna Jo,
We have enjoyed getting to visit with your folks and getting to know them on their trips in from AZ over the past few years. Your mother was a very sweet and pleasant lady. We are glad that they were able to move back to Searcy so they could be close to family during this season of life. We love you guys and are so glad to have neighbors like you. If you need anything, we are next door. Prayers and condolences for all the family. May God strengthen and comfort you all.*
