“ Don Eads was one of the best men I ever had the pleasure of knowing. He was a mentor to me as a young man and I was blessed to stay in touch with him over the years and continue receiving " Life Advice " since my time at Harding Academy and Harding University...

May God bless the Eads Family during this time of loss for them .....

“ My husband and I went with a group from Pine View Church of Christ to visit Don at his home. We sang hymns and visited. We received a blessing that day from Don. He was a very inspirational man! I went to give a blessing and got one instead. We will be praying for your family.
