“ Aunt Sue,

I will always hear Uncle Don's beautiful voice every time I think of him. His love of singing, golf and most of all you, were his defining characteristics. I am in awe of your marriage and hope that you will take comfort in the many wonderful years you had together and memories that you made.

*Sending you much love,
Suzanne*

“ Know it is so hard to let him go fully. Don was a funny, friendly guy and enjoyed life and his family so much. We remember all the good times at couples golf, parties, shared meals, him bursting out in song, telling his golf round in detail lol, and much more. Perhaps you can get some comfort knowing that so many hold you dear and share your sorrow. Bob and Frances Clark

“ We are thinking of you, Sue, Scott and family. We loved Don and especially enjoyed hearing him sing. All of his songs were favorites, but two of the most memorable were "It is Finished" one Easter (oh how we worked on that) and I ll Do It My Way" at your 50th.

You will miss him but try to rest snd enjoy the memories we love you.
