“ Sue, and family, we loved your mother and she loved her girls. We would stand in the yard and she would talk about you and Donna. When we would see a cute little dog in the yard we would know Donna was visiting! Donna was always ready for a friendly chat, she will be missed!

“ We will miss Donna. She was a petite lady who stood tall on the dance floor; always cheerful with a big hello and a smile on her face. She loved her family and her fur babies. Rest in peace, Donna. Peggy Brown and Ernie Green

“ Donna, my dear friend, I will always love and miss you. We have been best friends for so many years. We shared the good and the bad. We have laughed and cried together for so many years. You were the sweetest and the most giving person that made you so special. We have had too many memories to share on here! Those will always be in my heart and will sometimes make me smile and sometimes make me cry. You are now with your mom, dad and family and friends (some we both knew and miss). You are in your final beautiful home with no pain and worries and especially in the arms of Jesus. Rest in Peace my dear friend. Love you so much!
