“ I am sorry to learn that Doris passed away. She fought a valiant battle. I'll never forget the warm hospitality she and Tom consistently extended to me. Visiting them was like visiting another era; a simpler era that valued all of the positive virtues of life. Her life epitomized hard work. (Her house and yard reflected this.) Doris had a lot of love in her heart. If she loved you, she loved you with her whole heart. She was a true friend, a beloved sister in Christ and I'll always love her for it. May the Lord comfort Steve, Deronda, and their family during this difficult time.
