“ I've known you since I was a little bitty kid. You and John both . I can remember going to the hatchery with my grandfather to see the the baby chicks when they hatched. I remember water skiing for the very fierst time behind John's boat with you and mom and dad there to watch me. Most of all I remember all the good times and laughs we all shared together when I was growing up. people don't last forever but, the memories that I have of all the years we knew and loved one another will always be forever in my heart. You will be missed "kid" Never forgotten

Love,,

“ Dale, we often struggle to find the right words to say to someone who has lost a loved one but to know you are thought of with deepest sympathies and prayers seems to speak the loudest. You really did a wonderful job being there for your Aunt. I can say you loved your Aunt Doris deeply and it showed in your care and in your concern for her. I am here for you. God bless you and your family in this hour. Darlene Owens

“ Rick and Karen,

I am so sorry for this lost. Rick, I know Doris and JOhn were your parents in every way. I remember John teaching me how to drink Singapore Slings at the Club and Doris introducing me to antiques. I remember when she was diagnosed with ALS and we thought her time was short.....she certainly showed us. I remember the Pollards, Blakeley's etc. and how much they loved John and Doris. I wish I could remember the lovely maid who taught me to make vegetable soup and always kept celery and carrot sticks in the frig for her Rick. And the man who was John's right hand foreman who he would have laid his life down for. I remember Mrs.Pollard showing me how dynamic a Christmas tree could look with everything being wrapped in white and then decorated beyond expectation. I remember so many meals at the table in the corner of the family room and the times we got formal and moved into the dining room. My aunt Hilda taught me my early party manners, but Doris taught me my adult party manners and for that I will always be grateful. I have lost both my parents and although we adjust and adapt, we are never quite the same. My sincerest prayers for you and Karen that you will find the peace that goes with knowing Doris is free of pain and worry.
