“ You know when your grown, there are always certain people that stick out in your mind as being special or that hold precious memories for you. Sometimes your not even sure of all the reasons. Doris was like that for me. She was the first Sunday School teacher I can remember. More importantly, No matter where I saw her, her face always lit up when she saw me; you know like she was really glad to see me. I can still remember her smile. You know a kid can tell when you're special. I know Doris was. I loved her. Leldon, Kim and Carmon: May God give you Grace and Peace now when you need it the most. I love you all.
