

Dorothy "Dottie" (Boyce) Schraudt

October 4, 1939 - September 3, 2025

Dorothy "Dottie" (Boyce) Schraudt, 85, of Searcy, formerly of Memphis, Tennessee, passed away on September 3, 2025, at Mira Assisted Living in Maumelle. She was born on October 4, 1939, in Memphis, to the late James and Dorothy (Rutland) Boyce. Dottie had a deep love for children and a lifelong passion for teaching, spending over 30 years sharing her gift of education at Memphis Harding Academy, Memphis City Schools, and even women's prisons. Her heart for service extended beyond the classroom as she served on the board of Agape Child & Family Services in Memphis and, alongside her husband, was actively involved in the Kiwanis Club of Searcy. A devoted member of the church of Christ throughout her life, Dottie's greatest joy came from her faith, her family, and the opportunity to pour love and guidance into the lives of others.

Left to cherish her memory are her children George Jeffrey Schraudt (Amy), and Ann Marie Schraudt-Cook (Ronald); grandchildren, Amanda Lynn Schraudt, John McKenzie Cook, and Caleb William Cook; great grandchildren, Harlan Jefferson Haynes and Otis Redding Haynes; one sister, Marcie Madewell; as well as two nieces and one nephew.

In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her husband of 52 years, George William Schraudt.

“ Mrs Schraudt was my third grade teacher at Memphis Harding Academy, and our families attended the East Frayser congregation also.

She was so nice and loved teaching. My prayers for Jeff, Ann, and their families.

“ Dottie told me she always thought of me as “her” baby. Well she did help raise me.

I was so excited to be a little flower girl in her wedding. I remember it poured down that day, and the church's parking lot was muddy. She had a few tears, but in usual Dottie fashion, she powered through it.
