“ To all of Dorothy's Family, we are so sorry for your loss. Clyde and Dorothy were great Neighbors. We missed them very much when they moved from Stuttgart. We called and chatted with them often, after they moved to Searcy, Then after Clyde passed away, Dorothy was so lonely for a time ,but all you wonderful Children helped her out so much, she really was a precious Lady, and loved the Lord so much. You have our deepest sympathy. Our prayers are with you.
