

Doyle Dean Decker

September 7, 2008

Doyle Dean Decker, age 59, of Bradford, died Sunday, September 7, 2008 in Memphis, Tennessee. He was born February 3, 1949 at Newport, Arkansas to James Doyle and Johnnie Crum Decker. He was a member of the First Church of God in Bradford, Arkansas.

He is survived by his mother, Johnnie Decker; four children, and a sister, JoAnn Grady (Gary) of Thida, Arkansas. He was preceded in death by his father, James Doyle Decker and a brother, Jimmy Lee Decker.

Graveside services will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. at Heard Cemetery at Bradford with Llano Robinson officiating. There is no visitation.

Tribute Wall

“ Johnnie Mae and Family, I rememer talking and laughing with Doyle in elementary school. Johnnie Mae you and James were good neighbors to my parents across the railroad tracks. May God Bless You All.

December 27, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Sorry to hear about doyle. I was looking for my mom and found out. Doyle and I went to school together. We were good friends for years. My mom (Lillian) and Dad (Jessie) thought the world of Doyle. I was also a friend of his sister. We wish the best to the family. May God Bless
Lila and Brouce Holden

October 24, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Sorry to hear about Doyle. He is the father of my two twins, Aaron and Rachyl. They are now 30 years old. It really is too bad that they did not get to know him or his family very well. I know when Doyle met Rachyl, it meant the world to him. My heart goes out to his mother, Johnnie May. I told my twins and they are saddened knowing he passed away. I just hope that they can connect with their other brother Anthony and their sister and grandmother, Johnnie May.

September 11, 2008 at 12:00 AM