“ I grew up across the street from Duane, in Randolph, MN, and was one of his classmates. I think his mom Marie still lives there! My deep sympathy to Marie, Donnie, Deb, Dennis, and Scott, and to his loving wife and children and grandchildren in Arkansas. The photos were good to see (really loved that last one). Rest in peace, Duane. Marsha

“ Duane and I were in the same class at Randolph for 12 years. I still remember sitting across the aisle from him in some class and his endless (often successful) efforts to get me to talk or laugh when we weren't supposed to be doing either. Although I probably hadn't seen him since about the time we graduated in 1967, I remember him as a gentle, fun loving soul. As Marsha said, it was lovely to see the photos of him on the video. Looks like baseball remained a life long passion.
