“ Karen, Jennifer, Jeanette, and Tammy:
The right words are sometimes hard to find. This is one of those times. Dwain is an awesome man, whom I have been blessed to know. His love for the Lord and commitment to serving Him is an inspiration to us all. He would have done a lot more if he could have. It's ok to weep. Jesus wept at the graveside of His dear friend. But don't let your grief overwhelm you! The Psalmist is also right - "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning." It's "in the morning" where Dwain is! Please know Penny and I have been and will continue to be praying for you all .We love you.

“ I truly want to thank Dwain for his sincere love for children and his love for Christ our Savior. His work within the AWANA program did not just affect kids, but adults as well. He made an impact on both myself and my daughters that I could never repay! "WELL DONE, FAITHFUL SERVANT!" Karen, Jennifer, Jeanette, and Tammy- please know that he is at peace, celebrating being pain free, and is being loved in the arms of Jesus! You are in my prayers...
