“ Victoria and Elizabeth I was saddened to learn of Eddie's passing but I know that he had a special loved one waiting for him at Heaven's door. What a comfort it is to know that when we lose a loved one in this life that we will be able see them again one day because of our belief and their belief in Jesus Christ. ~~~ 2 Samuel 23b...John 14:1-4

“ I remember Eddie from probably the 1950s when he visited his Taylor grandparents at Clay. I lived there as a child and my brothers and I played together with Eddie as children. We remained friends through adulthood and watched our children grow up together. My husband, Darrel, worked with Eddie in the early 1970s. We were able to rekindle our friendship together in the 1990 and watched our grandchildren grow up together. Darrel and I respected Eddie for his quiet demeanor and his gentle kind personality. Our thoughts and prayers are with all the family in this time of loss.
