“ *I dont hardly know what to say. I am so sorry for all of you. I think you know how close Eddie and I were. This tears my heart apart.
You know something told me about 3weeks ago to find Eddie.
Looking back I feel like it was God talking to me and I didnt have enough sense to see it. The rest of my life I will wonder if I could have change things. Between Eddie and Buddy I had no better friends in my life. Susie if you or Willard need anything, please let me know. God, I hate this. I loved him so much and yet Im so mad at him, I hope you understand! Youre in my prayers and I love ya'll,Eddy (Possum)*

“ My brother also had a precious daughter, Heidi Layne Williams. They had a broken relationship but I know how much he loved her and would not want to hurt her or any of his family. Eddie also has brother-in-laws; Paul Sowell, Norman Cleveland and Don Gillam that grieve with the rest of Eddie's family. Eddie was a loving man. He thought there was no other man on earth as great as our daddy so it makes this all so hard to understand. To Susie; I know this is so hard for you. We are Eddie's family left behind too. We are near if you need us.

“ Words cannot express how saddened we were to hear about Eddie. We had a lot of good times with him here in Montana. He was truly a great man who could always make us laugh. In recent years he didn't find his way back to Montana, but he always called on Christmas to let us know how special we were to him. For what it's worth, he always bragged about Heidi and carried her picture in his wallet to show us. He was so proud of her. We will miss having Eddie in our lives and pray that he is a peace now.
