“ I will most certainly miss my friend in music, reading, animals, and a love of cheesy television reality music and dancing competitions. Eleanor, I loved meeting you in New York City. I loved our correspondence via email between Texas and Virginia. I will miss this every day.
Rest in peace, lovely lady.

“ Suzanne, Kenneth and all of Eleanor's family,

I was so very sorry to hear of Eleanor's passing. She was a member of our small and often times robust internet group. I always enjoyed her insight and perspective. She and I shared an interest in DIY projects and nature as well as common ground in Social Service work. I'll miss her but feel blessed to have called her my friend.

“ Kenneth and Suzanne...while I never got to meet your mom in person, she was always a delight in our conversations on the internet. We shared a strong love of the music of Dennis DeYoung, which led to discoveries of other shared interests. She was a lovely,gracious woman whose e-mails always brightened my days when I read them. I am grateful those conversations. My sincere condolences for your loss. She will be missed by our little group, but we were rewarded by her friendship.
