“ So feisty and full of life, always joyful and a delight to be with. We will miss her so much.

“ Such a wise, fun, loving, Christian woman. She was so lively and always ready to go with a smile and a laugh. I remember her telling me that you should get up each morning, put on your makeup, and get ready for the day. Then, if someone calls and wants you to go somewhere, you're ready. I never saw her without her “ear bobs” (as Barry calls them) and her lipstick.
I am so glad she still lives in my heart!
I am so blessed to have loved her.
Love to you all,
