“ I just saw the obituary for "Aunt Elizabeth." I am Henry's wife. We loved Aunt Elizabeth, although we had not seen her in a number of years. I remember such good times with her and Uncle Harold when Helen and Buck were still here. I am so sorry to hear of her passing. She surely had a good, long life. I know all of you will miss her.

“ Although I didn't personally know Grambone, I know the woman she raised my best friend, Randi, to be and I can only imagine that this is through the example that she lived. So I thank you Grambone for being the loving, supportive, and courageous backbone for your family.

I know this time will be hard, but I pray that the Lord's peace, grace, and joy will fall on this family as their memories will keep Grambone in their embrace.

“Grambone” was a great lady. I had the pleasure of meeting her years ago through her granddaughter Summer and I had the great pleasure to witness this woman's beautiful spirit and truly the glue to this family! Prayers and love to all the family!

“Hi Grambone, I know you making flowers in Heaven and playing with the kids and all the doggies of yours who have gone before. You always reminded me of Queen Elizabeth, your beauty, style and quiet elegance. God is happy you are home. We miss you but hope to meet you in the Heavenly Kingdom.

Amen?

“ Ordinary, no. Extraordinary, yes. That was what my GramBone was. To say she will be missed is an understatement. Her absence will have a profound impact on each one of us. She was an angel, a true angel. Her love and devotion had no limits, her beauty was boundless. In each of us, she will live and we will continue her legacy. She was the bedrock and foundation of our family. The seeds she has sown will forever flourish; for her light will never be dimmed. We will miss her every minute of everyday but we are beyond thankful to The Lord to have had the absolute best blessing that I call "GramBone".

I love you always,
