“ My sincere condolences to all family members. She was my moms cousin Peggy Hobgood. I met Elizabeth by chance with her sister Phyllis in South Boston several years ago. I found out too, that same evening that Tony was my cousin. I had done business with him several years while he was working in Roxboro. Since this meetng I have been attending the cousin reunions. Elizabeth was a classy lady and full of wit. Her wit reminded me of my grandmother Gertrude Puckett Hobgood and her sisters Viola and Ruth. Again my heartfelt condolences to all and sorry i could not be there.

“ My sincere sympathy to the family of Elizabeth - She was a very good friend in my youth at Bethel Church. I pray God's comfort in this sad time.
