“ Great Aunt doesn't describe it. I called her 'Betty White' b/c of her sense of humor. Some of the best days I can remember are ones spent with my grandma, Hazel, and her sister, Elva.

“ A most kind and loving Christian. I had the privilege of knowing Aunt Elvie since I was 2 years old when she cared for me when my mother was ill. In later years she became my best friend. I will miss her.

“ Aunt Elvie was an inspiration to me when I first married into the Greer and Parks family. Many memories with our boys fishing at the ranch they lived at for several years. What fun conversations when the Greer sister and in laws got together. She was a good person. God bless her family. Aileene parks

Aunt Elva was a great woman. She was the apple of my eye. We played together all our lives until we were married and then we so each other only once in awhile. I was with her at the last and I loved her so dearly. I miss you Aunt Elva Greer.
