

Elvis Edward Stilwell

November 19, 1951 - April 3, 2025

Elvis has left the building. On Thursday, April 3, 2025, our big hearted, hardheaded, quick-witted, generous, Papaw joined his Lord and savior in heaven. Elvis Edward Stilwell was born in his childhood home in Worden, Arkansas on November 19, 1951, to Eddie and Hazel Stilwell.

Elvis was a 52-year member of Local Union 798 where he started out as a helper and worked his way up to welder. He retired his career Stewarding jobs all over the United States. He had a love for horses and for his 1968 Oldsmobile 442, but most of all he loved his family and his grandkids. If he didn't pick on you or argue with you then he didn't love you. He was a faithful member of New Bethel General Baptist Church. In his younger years you could always find him outdoors, hunting, fishing or getting into trouble. As he got older him and Bud spent many nights at the horse sales. After retirement, car shows became his entertainment of choice, where he won many trophies and awards.

He is survived by his wife Dianna, his children Rachel and Scarlet Stilwell, Michael Haynes (Cindy), and Cody Haynes (Jeslyn) and his grandchildren Dylan, Garrett, Wyatt, Logan Stilwell, Madison Robertson and Addie (Mathew), Jace, Collin, and Carter Haynes along with 6 great-grandchildren, his best friend and brother Jesse Bud Stilwell (Nadine), and sisters Lola Hart, and Glenda Dunkin.

He is preceded in death by his parents, and siblings Albert Stilwell, Charles Stilwell, Genieva Algood, his nephew Rocky and his favorite horse, Jake.

Elvis loved his family. He was quick to tell you what he was thinking, whether you agreed with him or not. He was always yelling at us to shut the door but he never ever refused money hugs from the grandkids.

“ There was a tenacity about Elvis that was admirable. He had all the best qualities of a cowboy- rugged, gritty, hard working , quick humor, and loyal to friends and family. Our condolences to his family and his 798 brotherhood. He was a lifelong acquaintance and neighbor that will be missed. Phillip and Marcheta Goodin

“ I always enjoyed visiting with Elvis and Dianna when they came in my office. He came in pestering me and left out the same way. We shared many laughs together as well as a few tears through the years. No doubt he will be missed by so many. It's so comforting to know that There's another meeting place somewhere in Heaven for all of have placed their trust in Jesus and accepted Him as Lord and Savior. Prayers for this precious family.
