“ We were neighbors most of our lives and always pleased to have him around because he was a pretty tough guy. He had a fine bunch of kids also.

“ I'm thinking about all of you. Our family has so many good memories of Uncle Bully. We became really close to him when he lived at the lake. One memory he always shared was when Jenna was in Kindergarten. If she felt bad, she would call Uncle Bully and he would drop everything and go get her. She knew he enjoyed her company. He would read to her and they had a lot of fun times. He and Jim spent alot of time talking about old times. Jim loved it. We love you all and will pray for you in the coming days and months. Let your fun memories see you through. Love, Joye
