“ Maxine, Blenda, Carlton and family,

So sorry for your loss. I don't need to tell you how special Ervene and the rest of you have always been to our family. The relationship has always been a very dear and close one, even though separated by time and distance. Your family will remain in my thoughts at this difficult time.

“ Ervene Harrison really left an impact on my life. He was a true man of God and was influential in my faith in Christ.

One thing I remember about Ervene was how he was curious about technology. I'm a lifelong "computer geek" and he was always interested in learning about technology. I remember setting him up on dial up internet and he was so fascinated about it. And he loved video cameras. He never stopped learning.

And how can I forget his annual "Sage" argument with Maxine when it came to the Thanksgiving Dressing/Stuffing. You could always count on that.

I will always treasure my memories of this great man.

*Sincerely,
Brian Wolters*
