“ Mr. Scroggins was a wonderful man and I loved listening to his many wonderful stories about his family and life in the Navy. I helped take care of him while he resided at Salem Place. I know he is walking with the Lord. May peace be with his family and all that loved him. God speed.

“ Mr. and Mrs. John Scroggins and Family

I'm sorry to learn of E.L.'s death. E.L. and I worked for DHS at the same time. My parents were from Judsonia (Millers and Wools). Eloise grew up across the road from my grandparents. I had asked Fran about E.L. at a Social Security Hearing. I extend my sympathy to you.
