It's so hard to say goodbye to her. She was an absolute Angel. She helped me so much in my life. Is someone needed something and she has the power she'd help. She gave me a home when I didn't have one. They become my adopted family. My best friend. Then I was I married her nephew Keith. We did what we could in our power to help her anytime when she needed it before we left and moved 500 miles away. IAM now going through chemo treatment for cancer. I apologise to everyone that we can't make it. I was able to order some flowers,they said they would make them beautiful. I said please do for this Angel. We love her and will miss her so much. No one knows how hard it is that we can't come. I have also missed my own family being laid to rest since we have been in this state. I told Keith he would wish he hasn't moved so far. Now my words are haunting him. IAM so sorry Jenny and the babies. We love you
