“ "Miss Irene" was my Sunday School teacher at the Christian Church in Bald Knob—in the late 1950s. She had a way about her, gifted with the capacity to love fiercely and kindly & unconditionally. I was a strange little child, but she never seemed to notice. I remember thinking how beautiful she was, feeling special because she seemed to take delight in me. It is no small thing when a woman who was part of a person's life even for a short time and in a very specific context can influence the rest of one's life.

My love to Patsy and Linda. Your mom was one of the loveliest people I ever knew. Thank you both, as well, for your kindness and love throughout my early years. May your mother rest blissfully. Her memory, as her life, is most certainly a blessing.

*Mourning with you and sending love,

“ My other mother for a few years in the mid '60s. I spent a lot of time at her house and she fed me often. Also gave me a big ole handful of ribbing about my lack of affection for Herbie the bird. I remember her fondly. Big Hugs for my dear friends Patsy and Linda.

Thanks, Angie! We have shared a lot of memories of momma over the years - all good ones. I'm not real sure , but Herbie may have been Periwinkle- none the less, she did like that little guy for some reason!!

“ Linda, Patsy, & your family-such a sweet lady, your Mom, & lovely. Your parents & mine were dear friends, and I've always thought of you all with fondness. Time gets away from us, but seems like not so long ago we were kids and thought all was good in the world💕💕. God bless you and give you peace 🙏🙏
