“ I will always remember Tommy from when he gave me my first hard working job at Halifax Exxon. He was always busy and talking to customers as they would come in for service. He knew so many customers on a first name basis and made sure they were treat right. I remember how he would have us boys scrub down the complete shop with old brooms and dish detergent then power wash and blow dry it clean to have ready for the following work week. I am thankful to Tommy and his family for those great memories and hope they know they all are in our prayers during this time. I know Tommy is watching down on them. God bless Tommy, I know so many people will miss you buddy! ”
