Aunt Fay was a very special lady, she was always ready and willing to help anyone any time and she was always glad to tell everyone about her wonderful sons, daughter in laws and those wonderful grandkids. She loved with all her heart and smiled with such joy you could just see the love of Jesus in her face. I will greatly miss our visits and phone calls. I can only imagine what an amazing reunion they are all having up in heaven.

“ Fay was out going and kind to people. She was amazing person.i will miss her so much. We would talk on phone and texted. I loved going up to see her and set and talk about everything. I've known her for thirty plus years. I met her for the first time at Whitakers furniture company even after she quit we stayed in touch. I remember when me and her told David Lee, we were going yard sales and took off to gamble in Mississippi for the day and then drove back home said we couldn't find anything we wanted. That was our secret. I will miss her alot. RIP in heaven Fay Hayes.
