“ Mrs. Martin was my teacher at West Point Elementary in the early 60's. I just retired from 28 years of teaching high school chemistry and physics. I'm so sorry about your loss.

“ Mrs Martin was my first grade teacher, and also in another elementary year. In the first grade, she took me under her wing and as the saying goes, I was her "pet" every class she ever taught me, she even came to my home and took me to church with her during those early years. She always was so sweet to me and I will never forget how she took up for me at times when I was being "bullied!" There will always be a special place for her in my heart. We have lost a great lady and teacher, but the Lord has another angel under his wings. God bless and comfort the family during your time of loss.

“ To the Martin Family, May each of you find comfort in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) He has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25;8) Take care,
