“ Kay fought the good fight and she was a member of the Lord's church. She will now have a home in heaven!!
Hershel is my mother's brother. He seemd more like a cousin than a uncle. He is only 1 year older than me.
Mother (Syble Mason) and I were at Hershel and Kay's wedding. They both have raised a fine family and set good exsamples for them.

“ Mrs. Kay was friendly to everyone; I don't think she had anyone not like her! We met through my husband and children; she was a sub for our kids, and at least one of hers was in school with my husband. And, oh how she loved her furbabies! She will be missed by so many, along with our family. Our heartfelt condolences go out to Hershel and the rest of the family.

“ Kay, my sweet, sweet cousin you will be missed by so many. I know I will see you again one of these days, but the Lord was calling you home. Your faith and love you shared with so many and your strength and will power was an inspiration not only to me but to people who knew how long you fought this battle. I love you and I'm praying for the family, for peace and strength just like you had. Loads of love Bob and Diane Robinson.
